WAS OF LEGAL AGE

JOSE ZAMORA MAKES HOME-STEAD ENTRY AT SPRINGER—96 YEARS OLD, AND IN THE BEST OF HEALTH.

There were no questions asked as to whether or not he was old enough, when Jose Zamora came to Springer last week from the Sweetwater valley to make entry on a homesteaded by United States Land Commissioner Turner, for Mr. Zamora is 96 years of age, and the oldest settler in Colfax county, says a telegram from Springer, N. M.

He has never used his home stead right. Commissioner Turner is himself not a young man, being 77 years of age, and the oldest inhabitant he has previously had to deal with was 74, but when confronted with an applicant 96 years of age he felt at least twenty years younger.

When Mr. Zamora makes final proof on his homestead he will be 101 years of age, and taking his present physical condition into consideration, he bids fair to be alive and hearty at that time. Mr. Zamora's wife is still living. She is ten years his junior, and with the exception of slightly failing eyesight, is well preserved.

The Home Mission society of the Highland Methodist church, will serve ice cream, cake and lemonade at the residence of Dr. E. N. Wilson, 406 South Arno street, Thursday, July 13, from 3 to 11 p. m. The ladies are arranging to make the occasion an enjoyable one. The lawn will be tastefully decorated, beautifully lighted, while the work of serving refreshments will be interspersed with music, both instrumental and vocal. The public at large is invited to attend.

Miss Viola Clouthier, of Springer, is still in the hospital at Trinidad and will remain there a month yet under the care of her physician, says the Stockman. She is not under the care of a nurse now but is up. The wound caused by the dangerous operation is healing nicely and properly. She stood the ordeal splendidly and her surgeon, Dr. Davenport, says he never used the knife on a braver girl than Miss Viola. She is entirely away from danger of any complications that frequently arise after such operations.

Sam Ramsay, of Carlsbad, met with a very painful accident the other evening. While handling a large cake of ice it slipped and fell striking on the top of his right foot breaking two of the smaller bones.

Wm. E. Corbett has returned to Raton from Topeka. His eyesight is somewhat improved but he will be compelled to wear strong glasses and take the best of care of his eyes the balance of his life.

David Cuellar was sentenced to 99 years in the penitentiary for his part in the above crime. He pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, telling on the witness stand how he stabbed and slashed his aged victim until life was extinct.

Canuto Carrillo was sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary for the murder of Epimacio Garcia in Magdalena in March of 1904. Carrillo shot his unarmed victim to death at the door of Hilton's saloon, the act being the sequel of some former quarrel.

Thus, it is hoped, ends three criminal careers. The conviction and punishment of these criminals will without doubt have a wholesome effect upon the criminally disposed of Socorro county.

SOCORRO WILL HAVE A HANGING

A MURDERER WILL SUFFER FOR HIS CRIME ON THE GALLOWS JULY 28.

Judge Parker last week sentenced three men for the crime of murder. Escolastico Tais was sentenced to be hanged July 28 for complicity in the murder of Mrs. Petra Sanchez de Torres in San Marcial last December. According to the evidence, Tais stood over David Cuellar with a pistol and threatened him with instant death if he failed to stab the victim to death. An appeal was taken to the supreme court, and Tais will be confined in the penitentiary pending the action of that tribunal.

David Cuellar was sentenced to 99 years in the penitentiary for his part in the above crime. He pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, telling on the witness stand how he stabbed and slashed his aged victim until life was extinct.

Canuto Carrillo was sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary for the murder of Epimacio Garcia in Magdalena in March of 1904. Carrillo shot his unarmed victim to death at the door of Hilton's saloon, the act being the sequel of some former quarrel.
